

XM Radio is providing a valuable service which should not be interfered with. I rely on the availability of their traffic reports to insure I make important appointments on time, thus contributing to the welfare of my family. This service is simply not offered by over-the-air stations. Do not regulate valuable services out of existence. You have better things to do! Thank you.